Judge Bumbleton:

York, Barry Bee Benson v. the Honey Industry is now in session. Mr. Montgomery, you're representing the five food companies collectively?

Montgomery:

Judge Bumbleton:

the world?

(Everyone looks closely, they are waiting to see if a Bee can really talk)
(Barry makes several buzzing sounds to sound like a Bee)

Barry:

Judge Bumbleton:

Montgomery:

simple woman. Born on a farm, she believed it was man's divine right to benefit from the bounty of nature God put before us. If we lived in the topsy-turvy world Mr. Benson imagines, just think of what would it mean. I would have to negotiate with the silkworm for the elastic in my britches! Talking bee!

(Montgomery walks over and looks closely at Barry)

Montgomery:

motion-picture-capture Hollywood wizardry? They could be using laser beams! Robotics! Ventriloquism! Cloning! For all we know, he could be on steroids!

Judge Bumbleton:

Barry:

ordinary bee. Honey's pretty important to me It's important to all bees. We invented it! We make it. And we protect it with our lives. Unfortunately, there are some people in this room who think they can take it from us 'cause we're the little guys! I'm hoping that, after this is all over, you'll see how, by taking our honey, you not only take everything we have but everything we are!

Janet:

nice!

Judge Bumbleton:

Barry:

Klauss:

Barry:

Klauss:

Barry:

Klauss:

Build-A-Bear.

Barry:

(The bear from Over The Hedge barges in through the back door and it is roaring and standing on its hind legs. It is thrashing its claws and people are screaming. It is being held back by a guard who has the bear on a chain)

Judge Bumbleton:

Ray:

Barry:

Exploiting tiny, helpless bees so you don't have to rehearse your part and learn your lines, sir?

Ray:

Barry:

Judge Bumbleton:

Ray:

(Judge Bumbleton starts banging her gavel)

Montgomery:

enough of this court's valuable time? How much longer will we allow these absurd shenanigans to go on? They have presented no compelling evidence to support their charges against my clients, who run legitimate businesses. I move for a complete dismissal of this entire case!

Judge Bumbleton:

consider Mr. Montgomery's motion.

Adam:

Montgomery:

smoking gun!

Barry:

want a smoking gun? Here is your smoking gun.

(Vanessa walks in holding a bee smoker. She sets it down on the Judge's podium)

(Montgomery accidentally fires it at the bees in the crowd and they faint and cough)(Dozens of reporters start taking pictures of the suffering bees)

Barry:

"Smoking or non?" Is this what nature intended for us? To be forcibly addicted to smoke machines and man-made wooden slat work camps? Living out our lives as honey slaves to the white man?

(Barry points to the honey industry owners. One of them is an African American so he awkwardly separates himself from the others)
